Edward Deeb, President, Michigan Business and Professional Association
Marla Drutz, Women and Leadership Committee Chairperson, WDIV
- 8:05 am – 9:00 am “Thriving in Today’s Economy”
Our expert panel will give you proven career tips for how to thrive in a slow economy. They will address economic forecasts, perceptions in the workplace, realistic tips for personal finances, life balance and building confidence and morale. Let’s face it, we’ve been down this road before and there are proven ways to deal with on the job performance, re-invention and adapting to change. These opportunities can give you an advantage in today’s economy.
- Networking Break
- 9: 15 am - 10:15 am “Five Generations of Women Thriving Together”
Today’s workforce is a unique one as five generations are working together. Conflict has been observed between these generations due to misperceptions and stereotyping of these generations as it relates to work ethic and work-life balance. Our multi-generational panel will unlock the mysteries of these stereotypes and give you proven tools for mutual respect and understanding.
- Networking Break
- 10:30 am - 11:45 am Brunch and Awards Presentation
